Fireman A. J. Hill of the Denver line has been transferred to the main line and will work out of Alliance.

Civil Engineers A. L. Jackson and L. C. McCandless spent the last week in Cheyenne on company business.

Brakeman R. E. McKenzie went on to Lincoln from Ravenna last Monday for a ten hours visit with his parents.

Mrs. Nele Pederson of Ravenna and daughter, Miss Dorothea, are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bullock.

Engineer J. Carr of the east end has been transferred to Alliance. He will move his family from Ravenna as soon as he can get a house.

George Johnson, who was for years a popular brakeman out of here, has again returned to Alliance and now holds a position in the Duncan grocery store.

Brakeman Ed Howe has resigned from the service. He will go from here to Judith Gap, Montana, where he has secured employment with the Milwaukee.

Mrs. Jones and family of Crawford spent several days in Alliance this week. Engineer Jones has been sent to Crawford hill and may remain there all summer.

Mrs. Dick Kenner of Ardmore visited friends in Alliance over Sunday. She returned home on No. 43 Monday. Her husband, Con. Kenner, has charge of the work train at Ardmore.

Don Wagner, chief clerk in the train master's office went to Sterling Monday to meet Mrs. Wagner. Mrs. Wagner took the four little daughters of Fireman Cowman to relatives at Maywood, Nebraska.

Brakeman G. F. Diehl, who has been working in the yards at Seneca has been transferred to the east end local. He spent Saturday and Sunday visiting Alliance friends. He will make a visit in Theford before reporting for his new duties.

Hereafter Con. Beach and Engineer Gleason will not take signals from a dago. When pulling into Rumford from the west Monday evening with a heavy train some one gave them a high ball and ran them into where the dago's had a rail out and put the engine and several cars on the ground. They sent

The motherless babe yet here, will soon be taken to Maywood, also.

Theodore Johnson of Hemingford was in Alliance Monday and called at The Herald office to set himself a year ahead on subscription.

F. E. Holsten keeps up with the procession, or rather in the lead, in the matter of improvements by having plate glass front put into his store this week.

Mrs. T. E. Hickman has issued invitations for an at home Saturday afternoon to meet Mrs. Myrtle Slagle, of Alliance, Nebr.—Abingdon (Ill.) Kodak.

A. F. Baldrige returned the first of the week from a trip to South Dakota. He reports good prospect for some big deals for Box Butte county land in the near future.

Louis Buchsenstein, the cigar manufacturer of Alliance, was calling on the Marsland trade Saturday. Everyone is glad to see the genial Lou.—Marsland Tribune.

J. D. Horton of Grand Island, manager of the Bennett Piano Company for northwestern Nebraska, came in to Alliance headquarters last Saturday. He reports business good.

Our old newspaper friend, J. D. C. Garrison, of the Burlington station force, helps one of The Herald candidates with 150 votes this week—and the publisher with the cash.

There will be a Box Social at the Berea schoolhouse next Friday evening, May 27. Proceeds will go to the support of the church at Berea. An interesting program will be given.

Rev. D. B. McLaughlin reports having organized a Presbyterian church at Northport last Sunday with twenty members. Others who could not be present at that time have promised to join.

S. A. Barclay, secretary of the Farmers & Merchants' Fire Insurance company, of Lincoln, is in Alliance today transacting business with Gray & Guthrie, general agents of that company for the northwest.

W. O. Barnes is now a full-fledged commercial traveler. Being a good salesman and having a knack for getting next to a machinery proposition, he will no doubt make a success of his work for the International Harvester Co.

We are in receipt of a copy of The Granada Times, published at Granada, Colo. The editor and manager is Emil L. Moll, with whom many of our readers became acquainted last year through his work as district deputy of the W. O. W.

Peter Weinell was our first Monday caller to pay on subscription to The Herald. He informed us that small grain looks well in his neighborhood, ten miles west of town, but that his potatoes were nipped by the frost and probably set back a couple of weeks.

Dr. H. R. Belleville returned Tuesday from his visit to Omaha and Lincoln. He attended the meeting of the State Dental Society at the metropolis and visited friends at the capital city. He expects Mrs. B. to return from her visit to the coast some time next month.

F. W. Feidler, one of The Herald's old-time subscribers who lives in the Kelley neighborhood, north of Scottsbluff, was in Alliance on business last Thursday and Friday. He favored our office with a call, leaving three dollars and three hundred votes for Miss Ella Moravek.

E. S. McWhinney, a former Box Butte countryite but now of Denver, was in Alliance this week looking after property interests. He has been having some extensive repairs made at his building now occupied by Threlkeld's new furniture store, northeast corner Box Butte avenue and Montana street.

Dr. Bryant, eye and ear specialist of Omaha, was here Sunday to operate upon the eye of Mrs. Garrett. The doctor expects to make regular monthly trips to the Sisters' Hospital, so any one afflicted with these troubles should arrange with their local doctor to meet the specialist when he is here.

Miss Lunette Zehrung, who is an eighth grade graduate, leaves Sunday for Springfield, Mo., where she expects to take a complete commercial course at a Business college. She will make her home with her uncle, Daniel T. Watts, who with Mrs. Watts has made many friends in Alliance while visiting here.

The Notre Dame Scholastic is the name of a students' publication issued weekly from the University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Ind., which has an exceedingly large attendance and is said to be the best equipped with buildings of any institution of learning in America. The publication takes rank among the leading periodicals of its kind. The fact that J. W. Guthrie of this city was at one time on the editorial staff, increases our interest in the paper.

E. Rasmussen, wife and little daughter of Hemingford took the train here yesterday for Story City, Iowa, where they go to witness the confirmation of Mr. R's daughters, the Misses Elida and Hilda, who have been attending school at that place the past seven months. The family will return next week.

Miss Ruby Wildy left on Tuesday's train for Hemingford, Nebr., where she will attend the wedding anniversary of her uncle, Calvin J. Wildy. She will also visit Alliance for a few days, where she will attend to some important business and return home in about a week or ten days.—Scottsbluff Republican.

R. P. Doudna, father-in-law of C. H. Cowman, returned with the latter from Maywood, Nebr., arriving Tuesday morning. Mr. Doudna will go from here to Chug Water, Wyo., where one of his sons resides, leaving Friday morning. He is interested in this part of Nebraska and subscribes for The Herald to keep him posted.

Sheriff Thurston, R. N. Hayward, and Bert Trapp went to Alliance last Saturday and witnessed the ball game between the Hyannis lads and the Academy boys of Alliance, and declare themselves well satisfied with the performance, even though the Hyannis youngsters were defeated by a score of 9 to 8.—Hyannis Tribune.

R. R. Ruggles, having decided to locate at Loveland, shipped his household goods to that point and left with his family this morning in a covered wagon, preferring to make the trip in that way. And certainly it will be an enjoyable trip at this time of year. Their many friends here will wish them a pleasant home at Loveland.

M. D. Nichols leaves this week for Sheridan, Wyo., where he goes to install a new Champion Quick Repair machine, like the one which he has in his shop here and with which he has made a great success. He will remain in Sheridan until he has the shop running well, when he will put another man in charge and return home. Meanwhile his brother, I. D. Nichols will have charge of the Alliance shop.

John B. Merrill, father-in-law of Geo. Douglas, started Monday morning on his return to Portland, Ore., after a week's very pleasant visit. On his way here he stopped at Sheridan to visit a brother whom he had not seen for about seventeen years. Arriving at Alliance he surprised his friends who did not know that he was coming. He was much surprised at the growth of this city since he was last here a few years since.

The Alliance and Hyannis boys' teams will play a game of baseball on the Hyannis grounds Saturday afternoon, the 28th inst. This will be the third game between these nines and will decide which is the best fellow—each of the clubs having won a game. If you think for a minute these kids can't play ball you are mistaken. They play the game just like veterans and those who attend will see more than one exciting situation.—Hyannis Tribune.

Fred Countryman is up against it hard. Yesterday one of his teams, which he was driving hitched to a dirt wagon, ran away on Oregon street. Although the dirt boards slipped forward striking the horses, he could probably have held them had not his lines broken, when he went off the wagon breaking a collar bone and receiving other injuries which will lay him up for some time. In the run-away he lost a pocket record in which he kept accounts of work done, the loss of which will be a great inconvenience to him unless he can recover it.

Scottsbluff Republican: S. K. Warwick was over from Alliance this week attending a meeting of the directors of the First National Bank which was held last night. He resigned his position as cashier of that institution and accepted the position as one of the vice-presidents. Mr. Harry Bowen was elected to the position of cashier. Mr. Bowen has made many friends here since he has been among us who will be pleased to learn of his promotion, and all will be sure of the same courteous treatment, which is one of his many pleasant traits. Under his efficient direction the bank is bound to hold its place among the strongest institutions in the western part of the state.

Stock of millinery for sale or trade. Special bargain if taken by June 1st. S. J. Holdridge. 23-2t

The business of Gray & Guthrie, insurance, is keeping pace with the growth of Alliance and the development of tributary territory. Their business, general and local, from Jan. 1 to May 15 of this year was seventy per cent. as large of the entire business of last year.

J. B. Gray is on a business trip to the northwest.

Geo. Darling made a trip to Hyannis last Saturday.

N. A. Kirk is taking a little vacation from business to visit friends in Sioux City. He left Tuesday to be gone a week or ten days.

Dr. and Mrs. James M. Kennedy are enjoying a visit from the latter's sister, Mrs. John Edward Henneberry, and her tiny daughter, Jeannette, of Chicago.

J. A. Robertson of Sioux county has filed as a candidate for the democratic nomination for member of the state legislature from this representative district. He was in Alliance this week interviewing the democratic brethren. His formal announcement will appear in the next issue of The Herald.

Cost price on millinery continued for two weeks. S. J. Holdridge. 23-2t

C. H. COWMAN.
R. P. DOUNDA.

Samples of Alfalfa

Geo. Douglas called at our office Tuesday with samples of alfalfa grown from seed sown in June last year, and which showed a remarkably good growth without irrigation. The main root of one bunch measured two inches in circumference. The top was fifteen inches long, notwithstanding the late spring. The main root was eighteen inches to where broken off, the part remaining in the ground probably being about that much longer.
